

Enroute via Famous Flying Clipper Ship

Pan American Airways' S-42 Flying Clipper ships link the Americas on swift, regular schedules—spanning the Caribbean Sea in a day. These four-motored flying boats weigh 40,000 lbs.—cabins are wider than Pullman car.

Dear Mama,

Sent you a telegram so you wouldn't keep sending letters to the wrong place. I have a perfectly darling new house, all to myself and for less than the apt. cost. Much nearer the airport, and I can ride to work on my bike. Am awfully, ghastly busy all the time. Love to all. Will positively write as soon as I get a moment. Will be thinking of you Mama's day.
