MRS. D. C. JENKINS (Katharine Montgomery)

Wedding Announced Of Katharine Montgomery <sup>L-300</sup> And Capt. D. C. Jenkins

SIMPLICITY marked all the arrangements for the wedding of Miss Katharine Jean Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill R. Montgomery, 74 Granville road, and Capt. Daniel C. Jenkins, New Lexington, son of Mrs. D. C. Jenkins, New Lexington, and the late D. C. Jenkins, which was solemnized Saturday morning at 10:30 in the Washington Street Methodist church in Columbia, S. C.

The double ring ceremony was read by the pastor, Rev. John Owen Smith, before the altar banked with white gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. There were no attendants and for her wedding the bride had chosen an afternoon dress of Midas gold crepe trimmed with a self-ruching and her hat was a turban of green petals, gold and chartreuse flowers. A short green veil fell from the hat, and all accessories were in brown. Her shoulder flowers were orchids.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the Hotel Columbia.

Mrs. Jenkins is a graduate of Wellesley college with the class of 1937. Capt. Jenkins was graduated from Denison university in 1933, where he affiliated with Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He was graduated from the college of law at the University of Cincinnati in 1936 and before entering the army practiced his profession in New Lexington. He is stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.
