Dear William:

It is about time for another of your interesting letters to find its way over here to us and we do anticipate its arrival.

We are all head over heels in work which is the way to be happy and not think too much - but we cannot find time for so much that we want to do.

Your grandfather is still here & probably will be here until after Christmas. We had the Bauman

We are all head over heels in work which is the way to be happy and not think too much - but we cannot find time for so much that we want to do.

Your grandfather is still here & probably will be here until after Christmas. We had the Bauman family at Lawrence's house for Thanksgiving - as well as Aunt Bertha & Esther Phillips - The turkey was superlative and they all seemed to have a very gay, happy time - Pat was home from OSU with her roommate - They are both Chi Omegas - Pat has improved very much under the polishing process of college life. Betty looks & apparently feels fine! It is such a wonderful thing that she never gives up hope that something may be discovered to help her.

condition - Hope is a marvelous stimulant to successful living, in all its various & sundry interpretations.
Just what we will do for Christmas is uncertain.
Melody will probably brush off a bit of rural dust by going to Washington for the holidays. Carl will be home from Staunton & it is important that they see each other. Curt & Mary have bought a home in Md. overlooking Rock Creek Park & near the Meadow-brook stables. A Williamsburg home with about 2 acres in the yard & garden & some

This letter is extremely flat & uninteresting but it tells you that we are well & thinking of you both. The pictures of Philinda never did arrive to our extreme disappointment but we are hoping -

All good wishes for the season and love from us all - Sarah -
