April 16th 1940.

Dear William:

Just a few lines this morning before I go to Coshocton to the insurance meeting. Your letter arrived on Saturday the 13th, that is the one written on March 24th.

We received Betty's letters and post cards, the cards are what made the letter so heavy, also your note in her letter. I feel that steps should be started quite soon to bring her back as the situation does not look so very promising on that side. Presume that we would purchase a prepaid ticket from Genoa. We could send you money and you could forward it to the Consul at Frankfurt and he could get it to her for her fare to Genoa. Let me know next time you write just how you think we should proceed.

We have been having very bad weather here. Quite a snow last Saturday and rain most all day yesterday. No chance to get any work done on the outside. We had the coldest April 12th in the history of the weather bureau, it was 16 here.

Sarah is well as is Janie and the rest of the family. Leonard is much worried about his family in Oslo and Mary is getting along very well with her broken ankle.

Enclosed you will find your check, possibly you can cash it at the Consulate. Write as often as you can and give us all of the news possible. With love and best wishes, I am, in haste.

Yours,

Daddy.
