

THE FOREIGN SERVICE
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

April 27 '40

Dear Dad:

As you asked me to get some stamps for Ray Loring, I have had the floor swept and here are the results. I hope he will find them satisfactory; not being a collector myself, I have no idea what they look for. The only stamps at all unusual are some Latvian ones contributed by a clerk at the Consulate whose family live there. Since Latvia may cease to exist any day, they may prove to be of interest. There are also some Spanish stamps. If you know of anyone else who wants stamps, let

THE FOREIGN SERVICE
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

April 27 '40

Dear Dad:

As you asked me to get some stamps for Ray Loring, I have had the floor swept and here are the results. I hope he will find them satisfactory; not being a collector myself, I have no idea what they look for. The only stamps at all unusual are some Latvian ones contributed by a clerk at the Consulate whose family live there. Since Latvia may cease to exist any day, they may prove to be of interest. There are also some Spanish stamps. If you know of anyone else who wants stamps, let me know and I will have another sweeping made.

2.

Sarah's letter of April 10 has arrived, making unusually good time. If you watch for the sailings of the Manhattan and the Washington and get the letters to the Department in the morning of the day before, they will make the best time. One of these ships sails every other Saturday from New York. The last sailing was April 20th, and you could figure on from there.

Letter mail closes in the Department at noon on Fridays, so if you mail your letters Wednesday night or Thursday morning, they should get on.

I am planning to write a full letter next week to go by courier, which will

2. me know and I will have another sweeping made.

Sarah's letter of April 10 has arrived, making unusually good time. If you watch for the sailings of the Manhattan and the Washington and get the letters to the Department in the morning of the day before, they will make the best time. One of these ships sails every other Saturday from New York. The last sailing was April 20th, and you could figure on from there.

Letter mail closes in the Department at noon on Fridays, so if you mail your letters Wednesday night or Thursday morning, they should get on.

I am planning to write a full letter next week to go by courier, which will arrive about the same time as this one. I will wait till then and give you the latest news.

Love and best wishes to all,

William.

Regards to the Lorings.

arrive about the same time as this one.
I will wait till then and give you the latest news.

Love and best wishes to all,
William.

Regards to the Lorings.