Martinsburgh June the 24 1864

Dear Mary I have nothing new to write this morning I mailed a letter on Monday for you Have not got any letters from you this week Last night was the warmest night that has been since we left home There has been no rain here for some time It is very warm this morning and the air looks smokey All around this place is all alive with soldiers They are getting ready to leave for the front How I would like to have one of them sweet kisses that I used to get & I wouldnt mind to be where you onste say that I would wish I was You would not sleep mutch for one night but never mind The ~~night~~ time will roll around We will have to have patience

I will now have to close this Epistle Give my best respects to all enquiring friends I remain your affectionate husband JF Montgomery
