Sunday afternoon

Dear Mother:-

Not much has been happening so I haven't much to say. The poly sci exam was terrible, and I'm afraid I sunk all my hopes of getting an A in that course. It was a true and false exam and I misinterpreted some of the questions. Oh well.

This is my third letter this afternoon. The first was to Mrs. Dane thanking her for the good time I had etc. The second was to Dick. Outside the family he has been my most faithful correspondent, although I have had a couple of letters from Jake Kuhn since I wrote and asked if he was still hoping to come to Dartmouth. He replied that the poor football record of this year's team had not discouraged him at all and that money was the only thing that was holding him back. He asked how the chances of getting a scholarship were, and I said I guessed he had as good a chance as any one. I will go over and speak to the Dean about him, although I don't know whether that will do any good or not. That is, I will speak about his admission, not the scholarship, since I expect to be applying for one myself at the end of this year. Nevertheless, I hope that Jake will be able to make it as he is really a very unusual type and fine college material.

I had a letter from Connie last week, and after I wrote the answer I found that I had lost the address you sent me. I sent the letter anyway to her Newark address with a request to forward it. Please send the Gard's address again in case Connie forgets it.

She is very happy over there and likes State very much indeed. She said she has not been getting very good grades, but she had an intelligence rating of class A, between 97 and 100. She apparently has more intelligence than diligence. Frances is having as many dates as ever - more in fact, for she has a wider field for operations.

Did I say in my last letter that the round trip rate to Col's. is now only $42.84, a saving of $14.52 over last year? Unless you object, I think I will come by train instead of taxi or car even though they are cheaper. The Special is not running a car to Cincinnati, and even if it were I don't think I'd go on it as there is ~~not~~ ^{an} increase in time the other way. And by the way, please tell Daddy that if he doesn't send the money by the 10th of this month I will be kicked out of college. Maybe I could get a little leniency from Brother Norton, the Bursar.

My next, and I hope, last exam, will be history next Thurs. I have a lot a reviewing to do for that, and I hope that I will do better than I did in the poly sci exam. Dick had not been doing too well this year either. He is standing B in history and between B and C in economics. This hurts him very much, as I understand he was peeved that he is not a Rufus Choate scholar, altho I think this is a very dubious distinction at best. After the exam, I will have nothing to do expect look forward to coming home, which I can't help doing even now. I already have my time-tables and spend a few minutes now and then looking over them. Love to all

ANTIPHONAL INTROIT (Minister and Choir)

PROCESSIONAL HYMN (Congregation standing)

ASCRPTION OF PRAISE (Congregation standing)

I will extol thee my God, O king, and I will bless Thy name forever and ever.

Every day will I bless Thee.

O send out Thy light and Thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring Thee unto Thy holy hill.

Now will I go to the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy.

O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth! who hast set Thy glory in the heavens.

Oh Lord how manifold are Thy works, in wisdom hast thou made them all; the earth is full of Thy riches.

All Thy works shall praise Thee O Lord, and Thy saints shall bless Thee. They shall speak of Thy glory and talk of Thy power.

Great and marvelous are Thy works, just and true are Thy ways, thou King of the Ages.

O all ye servants of the Lord, bless ye the Lord!

We praise Thee, we bless Thee, we worship Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

CONFESSION (Congregation seated and reverently bowing)

Thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and Holy Place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit.

Have mercy upon us, O God, according to Thy loving-kindness, according to the multitude of Thy tender mercies blot out our transgressions. Create in us clean hearts, O God, and renew a right spirit within us; restore unto us the joy of Thy salvation, and uphold us with Thy free spirit.

THANKSGIVING

Gracious is The Lord and righteous, yea our God is merciful. Let us give thanks to Him.

O God of Love, we yield Thee thanks for whatsoever Thou has given us richly to enjoy, for health and vigor, for the love and care of home, for the joys of friendship, and for every good gift of happiness and strength. We praise Thee for all Thy servants who by their example and encouragement have helped us on our way, and for every vision of Thyself which Thou has ever given us in sacrament or prayer; and we humbly beseech Thee that all these Thy benefits we may use in Thy service and to the glory of Thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
