

1935-06-01 U-131

THE NEWARK ADVOCATE A

Two Dartmouth Grads from City

William L. Krieg, top, and Edmund O. Williams, Newark boys, received bachelor of arts degrees from Dartmouth college in commencement exercises this morning. Krieg made Phi Beta Kappa and was an honor student.

NEWARK BOYS ARE GRADUATES

Two Newark youths were among the 475 seniors of Dartmouth college, Hanover, N. H., who received the bachelor of arts degree this morning at the 166th commencement exercises of the historic New England college as the largest class in the history of the institution was graduated. The two Newark boys who completed the requirements for the degree were William L. Krieg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence M. Krieg of 197 Hudson avenue, and Edmund O. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund J. Williams of 429 Hudson avenue.

Both Krieg and Williams have been outstanding in campus activities. Krieg, a Phi Beta Kappa student and an honor student in history, served as managing editor of The Aegis, senior year book. He is also prominent in The Players, student dramatic group, and Kappa Kappa Kappa fraternity. He is a graduate of Newark high school. Williams, who prepared for Dartmouth at the Peddie school in New Jersey, won his freshman football numerals and is a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity and Dragon senior society. He, too, is majoring in history.